

Board Policy on Delegation of Authority
Board of Trustees of Oregon Institute of Technology

1.0 Authority of the Board of Trustees

1.1 Board Authority. The Board of Trustees is the final University authority and has full control of the University and its property of various kinds. The Board may take any and all actions as it determines necessary or appropriate. Board actions have precedence over other actions of the University and its constituent parts. Any such actions shall be consistent with Board actions. The Board shall adopt a mission statement for the University in consultation with the faculty, students and staff members, and in alignment with the University's accrediting organizations.

1.2 Collective Bargaining Agreements. Nothing in this Policy affects any collective bargaining agreement entered into prior to the adoption of this Board Policy.

1.3 Appointment of the President of the University. As provided in ORS 352.096, in consultation with the Governor, or the Governor's designee, the Board shall appoint and employ a President of the University. Except in the case of an interim or acting president, the hiring committee for the president of the University shall include representatives of the university community and at least one other president of a public university based in Oregon. The President reports exclusively to the Board, and the Board supervises the President. The Board shall prescribe the President's compensation and terms and conditions of employment and is responsible for the reappointment or removal of the President. The President shall perform such duties as are assigned by the Board. Except as otherwise provided by law or Board action, the President is the executive and governing officer of the University and President of the faculty. The faculty and officers and employees of the University shall, through appropriate channels, be responsible to the President of the University and through the President to the Board of Trustees, except that the Vice President of Finance & Administration, General Counsel, and Secretary are responsible to the Board in relation to the business of the Board. The President shall, from time to time, report to the Board all significant matters within the President's knowledge related to the affairs of the University.

1.4 University Budget. The Board shall adopt the budget of the University.

1.5 Tuition and Fees. The Board shall determine tuition and mandatory enrollment fees, including the incidental fee, in accordance with ORS 352.102, ORS 352.105, and other applicable law.

1.6 Business and Administrative Affairs. The Board retains sole authority for the business and administrative affairs of the University set forth in this section 1.0:

1.6.1 The approval of the naming and renaming of University buildings or outdoor areas, and other assets, in recognition of individuals or organizations.

- 1.6.2 The approval of the execution of instruments relating to real property where the anticipated cost or value to the University exceeds $1,000,000.
- 1.6.3 The approval of the appointment of external auditors.
- 1.6.4 The approval of a capital project budget that is anticipated to exceed $1,000,000, including for architects, construction managers, engineers and other professional consultants; and approval of any increase to a capital project budget that causes the total of all increases to the capital project budget to exceed $1,000,000.
- 1.6.5 The approval of the execution of instruments relating to any borrowing or debt finance transactions which are or may be in excess of $1,000,000, singularly or in the aggregate.
- 1.6.6 The approval of the execution of instruments relating to any shares, stock or other equity or interests in or obligations of any entity other than the University in excess of $1,000,000, unless the shares, stock or other equity or interests in or obligations of the entity are publicly traded or provided through the State Treasurer, Oregon Tech Foundation or a brokerage firm, investment bank, depository or other licensed firm.
- 1.6.7 Consent to the encumbrance of University real property by the State of Oregon.
- 1.6.8 The approval of the execution of any other instruments, including but not limited to instruments related to the acquisition, disposal or provision of goods and services, where the anticipated cost or value to the University exceeds $1,000,000; and approval of any increase or decrease in cost or value that causes the total of all increases or decreases in cost or value to exceed $1,000,000. When the ultimate aggregate cost to the University is not known in advance for instruments relating to the acquisition, disposal or provision of goods or services on a continuing or intermittent basis (e.g. rental, service, or supply contracts), the amounts set forth in this paragraph shall be calculated on an annual basis.
- 1.6.9 The approval of the execution of any instrument that the President, Vice President for Finance & Administration, Chair of the Board of Trustees, or a majority of the Trustees deems appropriate for consideration by the Board or a Board committee, so long as the instrument has not been executed.

All other authority for business and administrative affairs is delegated to the President.

1.7 Academic Affairs.

1.7.1 The Board has the authority to establish, eliminate, control or substantially reorganize academic programs and units of operation. Any significant change in the University's academic programs must be approved by the Board. The Board confers academic degrees, certificates and other forms of recognition upon the recommendation of the faculty. Such academic degrees, certificates and other forms of recognition are granted in the name of the Board of Trustees of Oregon Institute of Technology and are executed by the Board Chair and the University President.

1.7.2 The Board delegates to the president and faculty, authority relating to the powers outlined in the Faculty Constitution and Charter of the Faculty Senate and: (a) academic standards relating to admission to study at the University; (b) curriculum, curricular materials, method of instruction, grading, credits, and academic standards of the University; and (c) standards of student competence in a discipline.

1.8 Gifts. The Board retains sole authority for gifts to the University set forth in this section 1.8:

- 1.8.1 Gifts that create obligations on the part of the University for which there is no established funding source.
- 1.8.2 Gifts with a value exceeding $1,000,000 which involve: (1) Construction of facilities not previously approved; or (2) Non-traditional investment assets (such as real estate, debt instruments, closely held stock, partnership interests, permanent insurance policies, royalties, copyrights, licenses, and other illiquid assets); provided that gifts described in this subsection with a value between $500,000 and $1,000,000 will be reported to the Board of Trustees quarterly.
- 1.8.3 A gift requiring naming or renaming of a University building or outdoor area, or other assets.
- 1.8.4 Any other gift that the President, Vice President for Finance & Administration, or a majority of the Board of Trustees deems appropriate for Board consideration.
- 1.8.5 Current gifts of non-traditional investment assets, charitable lead trusts where the University is to act as trustee, bargain sale gifts of property, and partial interest gifts.
- 1.8.6 Deferred gifts, if the University is to act as trustee or custodian of the deferred gift.
- 1.8.7 Gifts of real estate, interests in real estate, or gifts of debt instruments secured by real estate from other than the Oregon Tech Foundation. The Chair of the Finance and Facilities Committee shall determine in each such case, including when the gift is from the Oregon Tech Foundation, whether a hazardous waste inquiry or other due diligence is required, and the scope and extent of such inquiry. The President and the Vice President for Finance & Administration, in consultation with the head of Development and Alumni Relations, shall establish further policies and procedures regarding evaluation of gifts of real estate, as may be necessary or desirable from time to time.

All other authority related to gifts is delegated to the President.

1.9 Gifts to the Oregon Tech Foundation. Gifts to the Oregon Tech Foundation shall be accepted by the Oregon Tech Foundation in accordance with then-current agreements between the University and the Foundation (as may be amended from time to time).

2.0 Authority of the President of the University

2.1 Executive and Governing Officer; Delegation. The President of the University is the executive and governing officer of the University, except as otherwise provided by statute or Board actions. Subject to the supervision of the Board and Board action, the President shall direct the affairs of the University. The authorities and responsibilities of the President of the University include, but are not limited to, the authorities and responsibilities set forth in and modified by section 1.0 and this section 2.0, and the President may delegate any authorities and responsibilities, except as provided by Board actions. Any delegation must be consistent with Board actions. The President remains responsible for the proper functioning of the University, notwithstanding any delegation.

2.2 Presidential Actions. The President of the University shall take such actions regarding matters within the authority of the President when the Board or the President deems it necessary or appropriate. Any Presidential actions are subordinate to and must be consistent with Board actions. In carrying out these duties, the President shall consult with the faculty, other employees, and students as deemed appropriate by the President. Consultation shall not remove from the President the authority and the responsibility vested in the President by law and Board actions.

2.3 Emergency and Temporary Actions; Technical Corrections. The President of the University shall take emergency and temporary actions when the Board, its designee, or the President deems it necessary or appropriate. Such actions may have the scope and force of Board actions and must be reported to the Board expeditiously. Pursuant to expedited procedures, the President of the University may amend a Board action or Presidential action in order to correct typographical errors, make address or formatting changes, or clarify language without changing the effect of such actions. Such amendments must be reported to the Board quarterly. The President may make expedited repeals of Board actions upon notice to the Board and Presidential actions, provided that expedited repeals of Board actions must be ratified at the next meeting of the Board or its designee.

2.4 Committees, Councils and Advisory Groups. The President of the University shall establish and define the charge of any and all University committees, councils, and advisory groups, except as provided in Board action. The establishment and charge of any and all University committees, councils and advisory groups shall be consistent with law and Board action. The recommendations and reports of all committees, councils and advisory groups shall be made to the President. The President shall inform the Executive Committee of the Board regarding significant recommendations and reports related to the affairs of the University. Upon request by the Chair of the Board or a majority of the Trustees, the President shall provide the Board with a recommendation or report of a University committee, council or advisory group.

2.5 Students. Subject to Board action, the President is responsible for development and administration of policies governing the role of students and their conduct. In carrying out this responsibility, the President shall take into account the views of students, faculty, and others. The guidelines for student conduct which set forth prohibited conduct and provide for appropriate disciplinary hearings and sanctions for violations of law or institutional policies must be consistent with standards of procedural fairness. The Board recognizes and affirms the importance of active student involvement in the deliberative and decision-making processes.

2.6. University Personnel. The President of the University shall act for the Board of Trustees regarding all personnel and employment matters, including labor relations and approval of collective bargaining agreements. Subject to Board action, the President has the exclusive authority to and shall establish necessary or appropriate written policies covering all employees not represented by a collective bargaining organization and necessary or appropriate written policies covering employees represented by a collective bargaining organization, subject to any legal obligation to negotiate the terms and conditions of such policies with the exclusive representative of the relevant bargaining unit. Upon request by the Chair of the Board or a majority of the Board, the President shall provide the Board with requested information regarding personnel and employment matters, including labor relations and collective bargaining. The President may appoint volunteers as necessary or appropriate and establish the terms and conditions of the activities of such appointed volunteers.

2.7 Research Grants and Contracts. The President of the University shall act for the Board of Trustees regarding grants and contracts for research, development, service, and training. However, a quarterly report to the Board is required for each initial contract or grant award that exceeds $500,000, and when any increase or decrease to a contract or grant award causes the total of all increases or decreases to the contract or grant award to exceed $500,000.

2.8 Execution and Administration of University Affairs. Except as provided by Board action, the President of the University shall act for the Board regarding the execution and administration of instruments and the affairs of the University. Notwithstanding the dollar limits specified in section 1.0 above, the President shall act for the Board of Trustees regarding the execution and administration of all instruments, business affairs, and operations relating to:

- 2.8.1 Acquisition of electricity, natural gas, sewer, water, and all other utility services;
- 2.8.2 The acquisition of goods and services made by participating in contracts entered into by group purchasing organizations or pursuant to collaborative purchasing initiatives with public or non-profit entities.
- 2.8.3 The acquisition of fixtures, equipment and furnishings that are included in capital project budgets that have been authorized by the Board of Trustees.
- 2.8.4 The acquisition of goods and services for sponsored research programs when the source of the goods or services is directed by the sponsor, or the sponsor retains title to the goods acquired.
- 2.8.5 The settlement of claims or lawsuits brought against the University.
- 2.8.6 The acquisition of insurance or self-insurance.
- 2.8.7 Leases and licenses of real property and modifications thereto of up to 10 years.
- 2.8.8 Deferred gift assets.
- 2.8.9 Real property acquired through gift or devise from the Oregon Institute of Technology Foundation;
- 2.8.10 The protection of the University's interests, property and operations in an emergency.

- 2.8.11 Actions and execution of documents necessary to establish legal entities, controlled by the University, through which the University may conduct business;
- 2.8.12 The selection of depositories and investments.
- 2.8.13 The execution of instruments or the conduct of business affairs where approval by the Board or a Board committee is impractical due to time or other constraints. The President shall submit a report of any actions taken pursuant to this delegation to the Board of Trustees or its Executive Committee on or before the next regularly scheduled meeting.

2.9 Legal Action. The President of the University shall act for the Board of Trustees regarding all legal action necessary or appropriate to protect the interests of the University. However, no litigation shall be instituted against a public entity or official or in exercise of the power of eminent domain without approval by the Board of Trustees.

2.10 Gifts. The President of the University shall act for the Board of Trustees regarding all current and deferred gifts to the University, including gifts to establish quasi-endowed or permanently endowed funds. Notwithstanding any delegation by the President, a gift with unusual terms or conditions affecting an academic program shall be accepted only with the concurrence of the President to the proposed terms or conditions. The proceeds of any gift, devise, bequest, or contribution received by the University shall be administered in accordance with the intention of the donor and any directions of the Board of Trustees in accepting the gift. Wherever possible, the Oregon Tech Foundation shall manage gifts. The President of the University is authorized to act for the Board of Trustees regarding the disposition of gifts.

2.11 Fees, Fines and Charges. The President of the University shall establish fees, fines, and charges after providing notice to the Board. In arriving at a determination of fees, fines and charges, the President shall consult with employees and students as the President deems appropriate. The President shall enforce the collection of tuition, mandatory enrollment fees, other fees, fines, charges, and all other amounts due to the University.

3.0 Enforcement

Board actions and resolutions shall be binding on the University, except as such board actions are later modified, replaced or repealed. Emergency and temporary Presidential actions may be binding on the University, except as such actions are later modified, replaced or repealed by the President or the Board. Any Board action or Presidential action may be implemented or enforced by the University.

4.0 Miscellaneous

All authority not addressed in this Policy is delegated to the President.
